“ Dewey was a member of the Sageeyah community for as long as I can remember. Ruth was a riot and Dewey would just sit back and let her tell the story. He will be greatly missed by those that are still here.

“ Dewey was such a friendly and trusting man. It's to bad that for that last years of his life these woman could take such advantage of how trusting he was. I pray now he is in heaven with Jesus and take comfort in knowing that one day the Brandy and Ashley will have to answer to God for what they have done. My deepest sympathy goes out to the Horner family.
