

Jesse Bryant

December 25, 1968 - April 29, 2021

Jesse Beau Bryant was born in Denver, CO on December 25, 1968, and died on April 29, 2021, at the age of 52. His birth parents were Dick and Norman Jean(Ferguson)Bryant. His mother preceded him in death. Beau, as he was affectionately known, graduated in 1987 from Broken Arrow High School. He played on the BA Tigers Football team, and won several trophies in his long school career in Wrestling. He had one older brother Rick, sister Teresa, and a younger brother Jeremy. At the age of nine, his father remarried and added three more siblings to the family; one older brother, and two older sisters. They became known to their friends as the "Brady Bunch".

Beau was the always smiling, towhead, blond, blue-eyed kid that never met a stranger. He loved hunting and fishing, was an avid book reader, and a master at dirt bike riding. He also tried his love at bull riding, which unfortunately ended with a broken back. Needless to say, that ended his rodeo career, but never his love of the outdoors, being a hot-shot water skier, throwing a hook in the water, or hunting the best deer.

Beau signed up for the US Marine Corp, but it was short-lived due to health reasons. In 1993 he married Sherry Trett. They had one child, Jesse Chase Bryant. Beau was a long standing member of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers #5. He traveled as far as Africa, for he possessed a passion for laying bricks and a love for his brothers in the business. Due to health complications, much of his latter adult life he held different jobs according to what his health would allow. Beau just finished a brick job for a friend, and a week later he was involved in a motor vehicle accident which took his life. Gone too soon!

He is survived by his beloved son, Chase and wife Courtney (Risenhoover) Bryant, and his new granddaughter Vivian, whom he never got to hold, but he called everyone with joy in his heart the night she was born. He is also survived by his parents, Dick and Theresa Bryant, and siblings, their families, many friends, and his guardian angels, Sherry and Tommy.

“ Beau was a large part of the time when we raised our boys. He was in our house or playing outdoors with our boys so many times that he felt like part of our family. He will be missed.

“ Chase, Courtney, Vivian, Mom, Dick, and countless other family and friends who knew and loved Beau, Michael and I send our sincere condolences. I have so many fond memories of Beau from a tow-headed young boy when I first met him and we became siblings, through school and wrestling years, and as he became a young and then older man. Chase, you always were his pride and joy. Rest in peace, Beau...Love, Catherine and Michael

“ Beau ... I can't believe I am typing this for your memory. I'm struggling to come the realization that you're no longer on this earth. You mean so much to me. I'm so thankful for the time we had together. I held Vivian and kissed her for you. I know you were there because of her expressions. She is beautiful. I love you so much and I can't wait for the day i see you again. I know you are the most handsome Angel in heaven. You are so loved. Now you can rest .
