

P.J. Sisemore

March 2, 1952 - March 26, 2020

Graveside service for P.J. Sisemore will be held 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 31, 2020 at Woodlawn Cemetery.

Pansy Jo Sisemore known to most as P.J passed away on Thursday, March 26th, 2020 at the age of 68.

The daughter of Thomas and Dorothy Gardner Cluck was born March 2, 1952 in Claremore, Oklahoma. There she was raised and attended Claremore Schools. She was a member of the graduating class of 1970. Upon graduating P.J. began her working career at GEA Rainey Corp. She worked there until retiring in 2014. It was also while working there that she first met Jack Sisemore. They began dating and would marry in 1992. The newly wed couple made their home in Glenpool for a short time before moving to Claremore.

P.J. wasn't known to be very adventurous. So it was quite a shock when she jumped on the back of a scooter for the first time. This became one of her greatest enjoyments. She loved loading up in the rv, with the scooter in tow. Her favorite destination was Eureka Springs, Arkansas, or any nearby lake.

She is preceded in death by her parents, siblings, Sharon Gardner, Bill Gardner and Danny Gardner.

Survivors include her husband Jack Sisemore; children, Robert Campbell and wife Liz, Jayme Buller and husband Jeremy, Michelle Bias, and Scott Sisemore; grandchildren, Harrison Bias, Emi Bias, Tristen Campbell, Brecken Buller, Sterling Sisemore, Jett Sisemore, and Arbor Buller, and sister, Patty Brown.

“ What a loving thoughtful, sweet dear friend that will forever be missed. Always cheerful and and positive and waiting for her Johnny to come home with her two puppies to care for, she will be missed in my life, but Heaven gained an Angel. Prayers of comfort to the family.

“ My sincere sadness in your loss. Pansy was a sweetheart, even being younger than me by a few years, she was kind to me when I returned to High School with a 2 year old.

Her kindness and pretty smile will be missed by everyone, especially me.

God Bless
